

Objective 2: Student Driven Sustainability Practices

2.2 Energy Conservation

“Caught You Being Green” project to encourage energy conservation throughout the building.

Award tickets designed by students were given to teachers and support staff whose classrooms are routinely shut down when not in use (lights out and computers off, etc.). The names of all who earned a ticket were placed in a drawing for a free lunch. This program ran from December through February and is planned to be an annual event. Teachers got excited about the free lunch delivered to them and the enthusiasm to be caught conserving power soon spread.
